Revenant Angel (A Lograire Novel) John Kissinger

Chattanooga private investigator Wayne Hoyer hasn't done any real work in months, not since a water-skiing accident put his daughter Tara in a coma. But the checkbook says it's time to get to work, and Wayne takes a case, the kind of case he really dislikes: a missing person. And that's only part of his first day back on the job. Reflecting on the odds of his successfully completing these cases, Wayne bitterly reflects, "I had a better chance of finding true love." However, he has yet to encounter the first of many surprises waiting for him in the hills of eastern Tennessee: some surprises very much of this earth, and some of other worlds altogether ...
