He goes after what he wants. And he wants her. The only problem: His next hit is her best friend.

Hitman for hire Mitch agreed to one last job. This one would allow him to retire from the game for the rest of his life, to a quieter and secluded life. He bumps into Rose, a curvy young woman whose free spirit calls to him. He can't answer, though, as he's aimed at his target. Giving in to her siren's song will end his dreams and maybe even his life.

He's everything she ever wanted. But he's also a killer.

College student Rose is looking to blow off some steam before exams, and her best friend knows just what she needs: a man. Rose thinks Mitch, the hot, over-the-top alpha, is perfect. Almost too perfect. She doesn't realize that his secrets could get them both killed.

Does he pick the target or the girl? Will Rose ever trust Mitch? Does she have a choice?
