The Nation of Islam s Temple #7 Harlem USA: My Years with Malcolm & Farrakhan is the revealing memoirs of Min. James 7X Najiy, sole surviving pioneer of Mosque #7 since its inception in 1948 led by students taught by NOI founders Master Fard Muhammad and the Hon. Elijah Muhammad; up to the dynamic regimes of Minister Malcolm X Shabazz and Minister Louis Farrakhan. This book is an intricate look into the life, times and events of the members of the Harlem Mosque that include: *The Harlem scene such as the Great Depression, Harlem Renaissance and Harlem Race Riots. Including a first-hand historic account of the Black Nationalist, Religious, Political movements and their Cultural icons of this era that proved circumstantial to the establishment of Temple #7. *The scope, influence and positive change the NOI teachings had on Harlem and indirectly Black America through the Muslims collective efforts of pushing the program of the Hon. Elijah Muhammad. *Najiy s personal accounts of the infamous train car incident involving a Temple #7 Muslim caravan battle with Maryland State police in 1951; the police brutality case of Johnson X Hinton; and police persecution of the Muslims through raids of their religious sanctuaries resulting in lethal battles fought between the FOI and Police. *The arrival of Malcolm X, the dedication that propelled his meteoric rise, his internal conflict, power struggles and missteps that led to his eventual defection and assassination. The untold story of what really happened including its aftermath effect on Temple #7 and Black America. *An insightful historical view of the Hon. Min. Farrakhan as NOI National Representative, early challenges, prominent rise and influence, his setbacks during the fall of the NOI, to his successful effort to rebuild the Nation of Islam in the face of adversity and rise to prominence as an International acclaimed Leader. *And much, much more!
