With the massive onslaught of digital filmmakers, there is an exponential growth of feature films seeking distribution and national and international markets. The updated edition of You Finally Finished Your Film. Now What? is a comprehensive guide for filmmakers who prefer to self-distribute their films. Inexpensive digital cameras and postproduction software have made filmmaking much less expensive and available to first-time filmmakers. It has also resulted in a glut of independent films all seeking distribution, making this book an essential read.
