A mother's anticipation of the pending birth of her baby leads her to wonder.... Will this day be the Day I Met You and You Met Me? As the long awaited birth and baby's first moments are revealed, this endearing story focuses on the wonderment of new life and the immeasurable love that leads to the bonding of mother and child. The Day I Met You and You Met Me! is an excellent gift for an expectant or new mother to share with her precious child. The bonus pages at the end of the story allow for personal documentation of a newborn's own first day, with space for baby's foot and handprints, first photo, and special words from family and loved ones. The perfect baby shower gift, and just a few dollars more than a card, it can be the perfect baby shower card!!! The book is also wonderful to share with your small child, adding the child's hand and footprints and first picture, with the documentation of the day the child was born, giving the child an idea of how his or her first day was, and the mother's love that never ends!!!
