The Garden Of Eden And Other Stories James Shimwitwa

The Garden of Eden is a collection of four short stories. The lead story is about Adam, who meets an irresistible woman, Eve, at a night club in a city famous for its notoriety. An affair with Eve leads Adam to a Garden of Eden where unexpected things unfold: a threat of death and a threat of castration. “Ooh, my God! What an interesting story. Thanks, James Shimwitwa, for sharing this dark comedy! Sad for Adam, but it should remain a lesson for all men who fall for other women while they have left their home!” – Mutiganda @ World City Stories. “All the stories are entertaining with a sting in the tail. They leave the reader wanting more...” – Editor’s comment About the author James Shimwitwa is a passionate short story writer whose stories have found regular space in the Times of Zambia newspaper. He has also had a story published at World City Stories. He studied electronics at the Copperbelt University and has received a diploma in English language and literature at Alison International University. He lives with his family in Mansa, Zambia.
