1 - Amish Heartbreak

Emma has finally met someone she could happily share her life with. But Caleb King, a stern, unpleasant older man has come forward with an offer that could save her family's home... if Emma agrees to marry him. Will God help Emma find a way to be together with the one she has fallen in love with, or will she be forced to accept Caleb as her husband?

2 - A Change Of Heart

Sarah and Jonathan have butted heads right from when they were in school together and have avoided each other ever since. But now her mother's sheep have gotten out of the fenced area they were being kept in. Worse still, they've gotten into his mother's garden and are trampling plants, forcing the two to work together to solve the problem, a situation that does not make either of them happy. Can they see beyond their irritation to see the good in each other?

3 - A Blessing In Disguise

Carelessness on the part of Jonah's father led to the death of Mary's sister, years ago. Her father has held bitter feelings against Jonah's family ever since, leaving Mary and Jonah caught in the middle. Their feelings for each other have grown, but now Mary's father has forbidden her from seeing Jonah again. Will it take another near tragedy to heal the rift between the two families? Will Mary and Jonah find a way to be together?

4 - A "Sweet" Romance – (This is Book 1 in the Rebekah & Eliza series.)

Rebekah loves to bake, and dreams of getting married and raising a family. Samuel meets Rebekah at a wedding celebration and falls in love ... with her baking. As the two get to know each other, their feelings for each other start to develop. But a series of misunderstandings threatens to derail their relationship before it can grow into something more. Can the two find a way to hear what their hearts are telling them or will they miss their chance at happiness?

5 - Eliza's Dilemma– (This is Book 2 in the Rebekah & Eliza series.)

Eliza has met and fallen in love with Peter. But he has a secret. Once her father discovers that secret, she knows he will forbid her to see Peter again.

She doesn't want to go against her father's wishes, but Eliza has waited so long to find the right man and she knows Peter is that man.

It seems that no matter what she decides, someone is bound to be hurt. Can Eliza find a way to overcome her father's objections and be together with Peter, or will her heart be broken?

Now included - Bonus chapter of Hanna's latest book, Amish Decision.
