Winter, 1975. A troubled rock band moves into a remote manor in upstate New York to work on a new album. Lead singer Marianne Wood has been plagued by nightmares and guilt. One year ago, her husband—the enigmatic, occult-obsessed drummer for her band—was found dead in the Hudson River. Their young daughter Chantelle is convinced that her father will return, as he had promised, and Marianne is secretly worried she's right. The house stirs at night, as haunted musicians unwittingly awaken a ghost with their raw emotions and electric energy. Marianne finds herself in a custody battle over her daughter with a manipulative, vengeful spirit—and they all face supernatural events far beyond the scope of their usual rock star experiences.
