With great power comes great responsibility....

Ashton Ferra gets what he wants. Always had. Women, money, power. No problem. It certainly didn't hurt that he had the supernatural ability to shift into a lion whenever he wanted, or as prince of his tribe he had access to billions of dollars. But he wanted more in his life, and joined the special forces to find the part he was missing.

...even if it's a giant pain in the ass.

Little did he know that he would be going undercover in one of the meanest biker gangs in Nevada, searching for the truth to the mysterious disappearances that had been happening all across the area. Everything is going great until he meets the one woman that throws him for a loop, Neva Simone. The one woman who swore she would never be his, but the surrender is all the more sweet for the challenge. The only problem. This lion prince just knocked up the bad biker's princess, and he still has a case to solve. But it turns out that what was really missing in his life was the love of a beautiful, courageous spitfire. Now, he just has to convince her of that.
