This set of western stories consist of the following titles: 'Happiness For Rose' - 'There Will Be No Wedding' and 'A Husband For Laura.'

Happiness For Rose: Fun, action-filled western romance with a little bit of humor thrown in. The life of Rose Cross has gone from bad to worse. Her father has recently died, and half the hired men won't work. When she tries to fire them, they say they won't leave. To make matters worse, one of those men is a hired killer. If things don't turn around soon, Rose could lose her ranch or lose her mind. Fortunately for her, she has Carrie Higgins as a best friend, and Carrie will do whatever it takes to see Rose happy again. She'll even come up with the perfect plan to save the day. A mail order husband!

There Will Be No Wedding: With her marriage to Doyle Stone less than twenty-four hours away, Olive Boyd has to follow her instincts and let him go. After having witnessed his dark side, the last thing Olive wants is to spend the rest of her days with this man, but Doyle isn't about to let her walk away that easily.

Knowing that leaving him will result in dire consequences, Olive seeks refuge with the one man her mother claims can keep her safe, Zeke Whitmore.

Unfortunately for Olive, Zeke Whitmore is not the vibrant and healthy man her mother remembers him to be. His health is failing fast.

When Doyle's men track Olive down, Zeke must gather what little strength he has left to protect her, but will it be enough to thwart the determination of a sadistic madman bent on getting Olive back by any means necessary?

A Husband For Laura: Laura Patton has no desire to get married. Her mother Millie wants grandchildren, and she wants them now. Since Laura is not interested in the one man from the area that her mother deems worthy of her daughter's hand, Millie sends off for a mail order husband who she believes would be a perfect fit.

Due to complications beyond his control on his way to meet Laura, Tucker Dobbs does not arrive at the scheduled time and leaves Laura and her parents waiting at the stage depot. Laura is relieved when Tucker doesn't show, because now she doesn't have to tell him that she has no plans on marrying him. She also doesn't have to worry about him getting hurt by the hand of Buster Farrow, the man who has told her, in no uncertain terms, that he is the one she will be marrying.

No story is complete without a sidekick. A best friend. And that's where Julie Ohl comes into play. Friends since childhood, Julie and Laura are as close as sisters, and are willing to stand up for one another no matter what the cost.

This is a western romance featuring strong women characters and a male lead that is willing to do whatever it takes. There is plenty of action in this novel, and you won't want to miss one second of it.
