Organisational Behaviour Stephen P. Robbins

This book is the first Southern African edition of Stephen P. Robbins's Organizational Behavior, the best-selling organisational behaviour textbook worldwide. A cross-institutional team of academics and practitioners has integrated Southern African research results into the solid foundation of contemporary and classical theory provided in the original text. Retaining the comprehensive and up-to-date coverage found in the U.S. edition, this adaptation helps students understand the complex context in which Southern African organisations operate by approaching organisational behaviour from the individual, group, organisational and environmental system level. Using an outcomes-based approach, the text supports an active learning process by providing: a connection between organisational behaviour concepts and skills application, numerous skills-building exercises, practical application of theory through the use of case studies, questions for review and questions for critical thinking, team
