It started out as a whim ...

Have you ever felt like starting a new life and leaving the old one behind? Three women in their early 50s courageously decide to do just that. They head west only to discover trouble and adventure, a far cry from the familiar life they know. But can they really abandon the comforts of home and find purpose without setting down roots? Join Pat, Ruth and Marilyn as their adventure unfolds, and they learn more about themselves, about life, and the importance of taking risks.
