101 Entrepreneur Mindset

People who are employed nowadays are looking for a better source of income, especially if they are not happy working for a boss anymore. Most of these employees are seeking for opportunities to be the boss of their own. They want to have their own business and earn from it. If you are one of them, you must have an entrepreneur mindset.

You may have the talent and skills or a hardworking attitude, but are those things enough for you to survive a business for a long time? There are people who offer products and services, sell it online or to people in their network, but still having a hard time coping with the pressures of running their own business. They usually have no time for socialization, leisure, or even relaxation. They are also stuck in their current business standing, meaning they are not able to improve or innovate their business.
