Mankind is currently in the midst of a spiritual war. There is no getting around it. Evil rises around us as never before. Witchcraft is now practiced in the open. children are killing children and vulgarity dominates popular culture. Technology is the new god and we hear of New Age infiltration everywhere from the classroom to the White House.

In the current maelstrom, in the challenges of such an era, in the danger of demonism, there can be no more important book than the one you hold in your hands. It is written by one of the foremost experts in spiritual intercession, Mother Nadine, and it comes to us as a light that splits the current dark. It's a book about spiritual development, one that every Catholic should read, a book full of information that should be preached from the pulpit.

Mother Nadine and her new community of Intercessors are a shining light in a world of darkness. They are true warriors. They have set upon an exciting course that dispels falsity with truth and darkness with love. They don't conduct their deliverance with flamboyance. They don't scream and shout. Instead they go about purging evil with the key components of Christianity: faith, humility and love.

Mother Nadine is one of our countries foremost experts on spiritual warfare, and her insights and wisdom will never be forgotten by those who take the time to read her work. Read this book slowly. Please read it carefully. And please pass it on.
