Mon Livre a Couverture Souple (French Edition) Wislene Hyacinthe Norceide

Orpheline a la naissance, Eve quitte son village natal pour suivre l'homme qui amene les enfants a Port-au-Prince, a la recherche d'une vie meilleure. Tout juste débarquée, elle est accueillie par une femme sophistiquée qui a l'air importunée par sa présence. Cela ne suffit pas d'être en bas de l'échelle, elle lui refusait l'éducation, l'identité et tout ce qui caractérise un être humain. C'est dans cette maison qu'Eve apprend les règles de la vie domestique. Sa relation avec sa maîtresse nous dévoile l'inconfortable situation des enfants esclaves brimés par la maltraitance de mille et une façons. Ils ne sont que des petits robots programmés à l'exécution simultanée de commandes précises. Un cri de secours, une voix qui se veut celle de tous les enfants qui vivent encore dans ces conditions atroces. Entre la grande maison derrière les hauts murs et la petite maison perchée sur la colline, Eve raconte son histoire, une déchirure sociale racontée avec les couleurs locales."
