Murder in Mind and As Shadows Fall-2 Complete Stories Christina Brett

'Murder in Mind': This is a story of greed in which higher passions play an important role. The story of a woman who, through marriage, acquired great wealth and a position in life but that wasn't enough. Being the lady of the manor was very good, but Anne also wanted Roger Tompkins, the handsome neighbour next door who knew more about her than she realized. Murder and mayhem and a surprising ending makes this story a good read for rainy days by the fireplace. 'As Shadows Fall': When Jane Burrows married William Tyler IV she thought her love would change him and he would be the husband she had always wanted. Her mother and her friend, however, were right after all and he continued to be the cad he had always been. After he took off with a younger woman, Jane finds out that he's not only a scoundrel of the worst kind, but one who needs cash fast and won't stop at anything to put his dirty hands on some. 'As Shadows Fall' is a mystery novel with lots of wrongdoings, a clever but very crooked lawyer, a witty set of best friends whose one-liners will keep you chuckling, and a handsome detective with a fear of commitment. All this with the background of our nation's capital, and a mystery to be solved.
