RAY BRADBURY'S GOLDEN APPLES OF THE SUN LEATHER HARDCOVER SIGNED LIMITED EDITION TRAYCASE-ONLY 26 EVER MADE! Ray Bradbury

This special edition of Ray Bradbury's seminal collection, Golden Apples of the Sun, not only restores the original 1953 table of contents--including such classics as "The Pedestrian," "A Sound of Thunder," and "The Fog Horn"--it also features, for the first time anywhere, an extra 48 pages -- play versions of two of these extraordinary tales, printed in facsimile format, exactly as Bradbury originally wrote them. As with Subterranean Press's other Bradbury titles, Golden Apples of the Sun will be printed in two colors throughout. This lettered edition, the only version signed by Mr. Bradbury, will contain nearly 50 pages of additional material not in the numbered edition. Lettered: 26 signed copies, housed in a custom traycase, with material not in the numbered edition From Publishers Weekly (starred review): "A half century after its initial appearance, Bradbury's fourth published book remains vivid and memorable. The original table of contents is restored (under Joe Mugnaini's iconic original cover art), with Bradbury's familiar and characteristically wistful, dreamy fantasy, such as 'The April Witch,' a haunting tale of teenage dream-traveler Cecy and her desperate desire for romance, mingling with brilliant science fiction like the title story and the widely reprinted 'A Sound of Thunder.'"
