He could make her do anything he wanted.

Jacob is just a regular guy until he's given a strange tablet with incredible god-like powers. He can change anything he wants about himself—transforming his average joe body into something that makes women cream just from walking by. And he can transform the women in his life however he likes—changing them from lesbian snobs into masculine member-worshiping, big-breasted, perfect-bodied lovepets with a flick of his finger. Soon, every hot babe he wants—including his delectably sexy students Phoebe and Gwen—are desperate to have him fill their fertile bodies and breed them silly. Even his wife Vivian, who is adamant about never being pregnant, is helpless to do anything but obey when Jacob uses the tablet to change her mind and her body to his liking.

But it's not all fun and games. He's found an object of great power, and a gorgeous immortal sorceress wants it for herself...and she'll stop at nothing to make him pay for taking what she believes is hers.
