Sherlock Holmes in The Problem at Stamford Bridge and The Adventure of the Tuvan Delegate: Two Holmes Novellas Van Allen Plexico

The Great Detective returns in two new adventures by noted adventure author Van Allen Plexico.

In "The Problem at Stamford Bridge," Holmes and Watson must uncover the real murderer of a famed athlete who was killed in the midst of a huge soccer match. All signs point to another player being the culprit--but Holmes isn't so certain!

And in "The Adventure of the Tuvan Delegate," a naked Asian man running amok through the streets of London (and speaking a language no one understands) is merely the opening piece of the puzzle in what quickly turns out to be a vast international conspiracy--and only Holmes and Watson can get to the bottom of it before global war erupts!

These two novellas originally appeared in the multiple-award-winning SHERLOCK HOLMES: CONSULTING DETECTIVE Vol. 1, from Airship 27 Productions, and in MULTIPLEX: THE COLLECTED STORIES OF VAN ALLEN PLEXICO.

Van Allen Plexico is the author of a dozen novels, dozens of short stories and novellas, and numerous non-fiction works.
