If you are looking for honest conversation with someone who knows what you are going through then this book is for you. It is about the bully that has taken everything that you hold dear in your life and sucked it from you before you knew it was happening. It is about the people that you thought had your back but didn't. It is about the family and friends that place you at the center of blame even though none of what has happened to you is your fault. It is about the feelings of abandonment, isolation and betrayal and how to get through them to a better you. It is about regaining your strength; feelings of joy... and life back...one big step at a time through prayer, appreciation and positive thinking.
