For The Good of The German (Evil Pursueth Book 3) George M Shank

World War II has begun, and men and boys are leaving the village to serve the Fatherland. Villagers have a party for twins who have joined the Waffen SS, at which Thomas hears rumors about the Luftwaffe camp's experiments. Tension between right and wrong increasingly plagues him.

Helga marries a camp soldier who transfers to Berlin. Eleven of the family members travel to the grand city of Berlin, and on his return in 1942, Thomas learns the truth about the camp experiments. A village soldier returns with no legs, and Thomas's illusion of the glory of war is shattered.
