Il patto tradito fra uomo e cane (Pet-ology Stories) (Italian Edition) Ermanno Giudici

15.000 anni. Tanto tempo è trascorso dal primo sodalizio instaurato col cane. Nel corso dei millenni è avvenuto un lungo processo di domesticazione, basato sull'assolvimento di reciproci bisogni, sul rispetto di un patto: in cambio di difesa e ausilio nella caccia l'uomo garantiva al cane riparo e cibo.

La trasformazione della società ha mutato l'originario senso dell'antico patto che l'uomo aveva originariamente instaurato.

Purtroppo questa evoluzione ha recato con sé una progressiva separazione dell'uomo dall'animale, che non è più in grado di vedere e valutare correttamente i bisogni, che non vuole piegare i suoi desideri alle necessità del cane, che vuole sceglierne il colore come si trattasse di un divano, la taglia come se fosse un abito, il modello come se fosse un'automobile; con la stessa volubilità che le mode hanno in altri settori anche il cane è stato inserito in questo circolo vizioso.

Questo libro fa luce sull'argomento svelandone gli aspetti più sconvolgenti.
