How will the church respond to a flu pandemic? Do we have a plan? Will we retreat in fear, or are we ready to be God's light in the midst of suffering? This book has been written not to raise our fears, but to do the exact opposite: to prepare the church to shine as God's light in the midst of such crises, to respond to our call to be people of healing and hope. During four sessions Christians can learn how they can prepare to be God's light in the midst of pandemics, natural disasters, and other crises. 40 Pages.
