Daphne and Apollo: The Boy With The Golden Arrow (Plays for Children based on Ovid's Metamorphoses Book 10) Ursula Dubosarsky

This is one of a series of entertaining, funny plays for children based on Ovid's "Metamorphoses", suitable for class performance or private reading, for young students of the classical world of literature. Each play involves a transformation and is written in conversational English, while keeping as much as possible to the dramatic and playful spirit of Ovid's original. These plays were first published in the NSW Department of Education's "School Magazine". More about the award-winning author can be found at www.ursuladubosarsky.com.
