Inspired by the legends of hauntings surrounding Jefferson Davis Hospital in Houston, "The Bone Orchard" follows Tina Wakefield, who has been having scary hallucinations of angry ghosts around her since the tragic death of her mother. With the help of her friends and her husband, Tina has tried her best to overcome her mental illness while living at an apartment complex that used to be Jefferson Davis Hospital, historically known to be built on top of Houston's first city cemetery. But when she meets Jani at her birthday party and hears about the myths and legends of paranormal activity at the hospital, Tina begins to realize that the ghosts she sees may not be her imagination, but the angry ghosts of the forgotten souls left behind for centuries. With thousands of years of history buried in a cemetery underneath her building and the paranormal activity increasing, can Tina stop the ghosts and save the lives of her loved ones before it's too late?
