REMEMBER SPRING: A book of poems dedicated to my husband Ronald Nancy Linnemann

I met my husband in college. He became a manager of a hospital lab and I became the director of a preschool. We had 3 children, and eventually 4 grandchildren. We lived very happily for 43 years. Then Ron was diagnosed with Colon Cancer and he died in August of 2008. These poems have helped me through my grieving process. They do not make me miss him any less but they are comforting.
