Travel Deeper: A Globetrotter's Guide to Starting a Business Abroad Ryan Spiegel

Ryan Spiegel's dream was always to open a business abroad. From the moment he started traveling, he saw possibility everywhere and spent years constructing the ideal business in his head. In 2011, Spiegel made that dream a reality when he co-founded a hostel in San Juan del Sur, Nicaragua, a quaint, beautiful surf town on the Pacific coast. Together with his partner, he grew an empty house into a profitable business from the ground-up, eventually expanding the hostel to include a bar, restaurant, surf company and event business. In this book, he'll tell you how he did it. He'll recount the poor judgements and mistakes he made in the process and the lessons he learned the hard way. He'll share his triumphs and trials and show you how you can open a business abroad too. If you're an aspiring founder seeking a new scene, if you're feeling stuck in your office job, or if you're just ready to have a laugh at the vomit-soaked, truck-sinking adventures of opening a business abroad then this book is for you.
