Requiem Steve Frech

Eight years ago, David Faustus fled across the country to escape the poisonous influence of his father. Now, Walter Faustus has disappeared, ruled a suicide after his car is found abandoned on the shores of Lake Ontario with a note inside and David must return home to settle his father's affairs but everything is not as it seems. Secrets fill the sleepy New England town of Sackets Harbor. David finds his father's lonely mansion in the woods filled with riddles and clues and as he begins to dig deeper, David starts to wonder if his father is still alive... and he's not the only one looking for him. A stranger is lurking in the woods, following David's every move. To discover the truth, David has no choice but to play the game left by his father, a dangerous and deadly quest that may reveal what happened to Walter Faustus but could cost David his life.
