Meet Penelope McKay. After growing up impoverished in eastern Kentucky, this curvy blond beauty is becoming a successful and sought-after fashion designer in New York City. Sweet Penelope is a hardworking, independent twenty-two year old, vying for a permanent position at one of the hottest fashion design studios in Manhattan.

However, after Penelope meets Cole Montgomery, a handsome Texas billionaire currently working in Manhattan, her dreams get flipped upside down. Cole is not a cowboy accustomed to losing anything, and, after his first encounter with Penelope, he realizes that not only does he not want to go back to Texas without her, but also that she would be the perfect fit to revitalize his mother's aging design company back in his hometown of Crowley.

After a single night of passion, Cole makes Penelope an offer she can't refuse. Or can she? Will independent Penelope with her sexy southern accent follow her heart, and risk everything she's worked so hard for in Manhattan, for a once-in-a-lifetime chance at love?
