Amarog: Where the FU does Nova get off thinking she's such hot stuff?

Okay fine! She is one smoking she wolf, I'll give her that much, but how can her female tribe help us fight off a ward of bear shifters?

They are wasting our time and that is one thing we can't afford to lose right now.

So what if she fights as well as some of us? So what if she's as stubborn as a man, as confident and as brave? She's a female at the end of the day and good for one thing. The sooner she gets that the better!

Nova: If Amarog thinks he can wrap me around his little finger like all his other girls, he's got another thing coming!!

We're here to swap services, not make fishy lips... even if I find it difficult to keep my clothes on around him.

We have something he needs and even though he'll never admit it, he will be defeated by the bear pack without our help!

We'll help them save the island and then my tribe can negotiate our end of the bargain. I just need to stay focused on the end goal. It's pure business. Well...maybe some room for pleasure...

Book 5 – Billionaire Lion's Embrace

RILEY: I don't have time for this. I always get stuck with the rich jerks who think they're better than everyone else. I know Charles won't be any different.

He's a crude man with a wandering eye and a sharp tongue. I know he watches me when I bend over to pick up things I drop. Ugh. What a creep. Yet...I'm so attracted to him. There's something animalistic about him and I bet it comes out in the bedroom. There's only one way to find out.

Charles: People think I'm an arrogant bastard and they're right to think it.

I'm not arrogant without reason, however. I always get what I want and now I have my eye on my new assistant. She's going to fight me; I know she is. Poor thing, doesn't even know she's lost the game already. No one comes up against Charles Henry and gets away. Especially gorgeous women like her.
