The Meaning Of Theft Peter O'Mahoney

David's urban routine is interrupted by an unexpected moment of thievery and he is instantly obsessed with the excitement it unleashes. With his colleague, he embarks on a mission to steal from the city that has stolen much of his life. They become entangled in a web of compulsion and their lust for corruption branches out to grip every aspect of their tedious lives, driving them to adrenalin inducing highs, but only fuelling their need for further crime. Can they control their addiction before it controls them?
