The Good Daughter Jean Brashear

Chloe St. Claire grew up as a daughter of privilege—but when she found the advantages empty, she carved out a life of her own. That meant taking a job as a police psychologist with the Austin Police Department and becoming a lot less naive. Still, she's never met anyone like this detective.

Vince Coronado is in trouble—under investigation by Internal Affairs for killing a man—and his boss has ordered him to spill his guts to a woman who could never understand the world he's from. He's sure their powerful attraction won't lead to anything serious. But he's been wrong before....
