Archibald and the Fiery Furnace (Archibald's Bible Adventures, Book 1) Laura J. Marshall

Join Archibald on his first adventure, as he discovers God's purpose for his life and meets Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego.

Some say cats have nine lives, but Archibald only had one. However, while looking for his forever home, God placed Archibald in different lands and times to see amazing miracles that He did for His people.

With lessons intertwined within each story and four included devotionals for you and your child at the back of the books in the series, these stories are sure to become a favorite. Each book also includes a "Find the Hidden Character" fun feature for younger children to look for as they listen.

God spoke again, "I created you, Archibald. I am within and around you. I preserve your life."

The wind increased. It ruffled Archibald's black fur and he shivered. He opened his eyes to see the branches of the trees around him swaying. A bird burst into song and flapped its wings loudly, flying away.

"And You are in the breeze through the trees and the birds of the air?" Archibald asked, astonishment making his eyes grow wide.

"I am."
