D'os, de sang et de douleur (Commissaire Delajoie) (Volume 3) (French Edition) John Marcus

Lorsque le corps d'un éminent neuropsychiatre, inventeur d'un procédé révolutionnaire pour soigner les troubles mentaux, est découvert sauvagement assassiné dans une petite église de la Meuse, la fameuse équipe du commissaire Delajoie ne se doute pas qu'elle s'apprête à mener sa dernière mission, une plongée sans retour possible dans les méandres les plus obscurs de l'esprit humain.

Une quête psychotique, qui mènera les enquêteurs de la cour ordinaire d'une école primaire à celle des aliénés de Bicêtre, de la société eugéniste de Platon aux chambres d'euthanasie des nazis, du Népenthes d'Homère au Summum™ commercialisé par la mystérieuse fondation Essentielle.

Une course insensée en vérité, totalement orchestrée par un inquiétant « Héraclès le furieux », bien déterminé à faire voler la raison en éclats.

John Marcus nous convie ici à un voyage aux confins de la folie, dans l'histoire tourmentée de la psychiatrie et dans ces laboratoires de l'âme où se théorise un hygiénisme mental destiné à imposer une norme technique de la pensée, dans lesquels se perpétue une vision biopolitique, socialement pure, d'un bien-être psychique débarrassé enfin des émotions et des sentiments humains jugés trop répréhensibles.
