Bib Ballads: 29 short poems on parenthood. Ring Lardner

“A brand of humor that is all his own and that laughs not so much at people for their foibles as with them. His place is ‘at the top or thereabouts among the fictionists of our day,’ according to Heywood Broun.” - Current Opinion, Volume 73, July, 1922

Dear Parents:--Don't imagine, please, It's in a boastful spirit I fashion verses such as these; That's not the truth or near it.

A hundred or a thousand, yes, A million kids there may be Who aren't one iota less Attractive than this baby.

I'll venture that your household has As valuable a treasure As mine, but mine I know, and as For yours, I've not that pleasure.

And that is why my book's about Just one, O Dads and Mothers; But babes are babes, and mine, no doubt, Is very much like others.
