Circumstantial Evidence (The Sweetwater Trilogy) (Volume 3) Lisa Clark O'Neill

As Chief of Police in Sweetwater, South Carolina, Will Hawbaker has seen more than his share of violent crime. But none of it has prepared him for the aftereffects of a young boy dead at the hand of his mother's boyfriend. And when the suspected killer turns up dead himself, it raises more questions. Could this crime which has already shaken the town be even more sinister than it appears? Camellia Abernathy has seen her own share of heartache following the violent death of the husband she only thought she knew. In returning to Sweetwater, her childhood home, Cam hopes to pick up the pieces of a shattered life for both herself and her young son. One piece of that life includes Will Hawbaker, the man who not only launched the investigation which uncovered her husband's double life, but with whom she's been in love since they were teens. A rapid fire series of events turns both Cam and Will's lives upside down, drawing them together even as they find themselves in the cross-hairs of a killer.
