A natural best seller, this touch-and-feel adventure by Maurice Pledger is sure to inspire even the littlest readers to want to visit the nearest ocean or aquarium.

Join Little Dolphin on an underwater adventure as he tries to find his family. The new friends he meets along the way offer all sorts of excitement! From scaly fish to a scary shark, Little Dolphin encounters all sorts of new creatures before he learns not to travel too far from his family and to pay attention, or else he will find himself lost again. In this age-appropriate adventure for children ages 3 and older, you'll find a touchable experience on every page and learn a little about the wonders and dangers you can expect to encounter in the ocean. Furry, rough, soft, woolly, leathery, or velvety--increase vocabulary, explore sensory learning, and get to know how different each sea animal looks and feels.

Nature Trails: In the Ocean lets you feel your way through the sea to meet the many different creatures that live there.
