When fourteen years old Mike Spanner's parents drag him off for a rain-soaked caravan holiday on Anglesey, things look pretty bleak...until he meets Jill, the feisty but frustratingly unpredictable girl of his dreams. Unfortunately for lovesick Mike, Jill also features prominently in the dreams of handsome and athletic local farmer's son, Dafydd. With a showdown at the Sunshine Cove campsite's Lobster Club Disco looming, matters are complicated further by the trio's inadvertent discovery that a gang of ruthless drug smugglers are using the site as cover for their nefarious deeds. Can the love-struck teens unravel their emotions and present a united front in a danger-fraught attempt to thwart the villains dastardly plans? In a literally explosive finale, the teenage trio attempt to prove to the criminals, the forces of law and order, their parents and themselves that they have what it takes to throw a 'spanner in the works'.
