The Woods Paul Hoppe

Being afraid of the dark doesn't mean being afraid alone. When a boy can't find his favorite stuffed bunny, he bravely heads into the woods to look for it. Instead, he finds a big, scary brown bear! But the bear is just lonely, so the boy shares his night light and forges ahead with his new companion, until...they run into two frightening giants! As the boy continues on, he comes across other seemingly menacing creatures, but finds that—like him—they're just looking for some comfort and security before bedtime. Simple text and classic European style meet a fresh, modern twist in this delightful picture book.

Catherine Lyons:

As a college student exactly feel bored in order to reading. If their teacher inquired them to go to the library or make summary for some e-book, they are complained. Just minor students that has reading's soul or real their hobby. They just do what the instructor want, like asked to the library. They go to there but nothing reading critically. Any students feel that reading through is not important, boring and also can't see colorful pictures on there. Yeah, it is to get complicated. Book is very important for yourself. As we know that on this era, many ways to get whatever you want. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore , this The Woods can make you truly feel more interested to read.
